

Highly respected as a member of the elite group of endorsed Benedetto Jazz Guitar Artists, constantly evolving guitarist, non-profit leader and educator, Beth Marlis currently serves as Vice President and as a senior guitar faculty member (37 years) at Musicians Institute, where she previously served for 10 years as the Department Chair at GIT (Guitar Institute of Technology).

Beth received her undergraduate music degrees from The University of California, GIT and a Master of Music degree in Studio/Jazz Guitar from USC. She is the author of two best-selling guitar instructional method books by Hal Leonard/MI Press, and can be heard performing concerts and teaching Masterclasses across the country. Live credits include: Ledisi, Helen Reddy, Brownie McGee, Louis Bellson, Harold Land Jr., Nelson Riddle, Jackie DeShannon, Judith Hill, Barbara Morrison, and countless others.